Michel Comte is one of the most sought-after fashion and magazine photographers in the world. Born in 1953 in Zurich, Switzerland, the trained art restorer came to photography autodidactically, receiving his first international assignments from Paris fashion houses at age 25. In addition to fashion photography and portraits of celebrities from the worlds of art and entertainment, Comte has now turned his eye towards photo reporting, bringing him to war zones and dangerous areas such as Iraq, Afghanistan and Bosnia. Pages 20-25.

Béline Dolat lives and works in Paris. After a brief time at the French Senate and several years in television as a journalist for a literary program she is presently co-editor in chief of a lifestyle magazine. She also works for several women's magazines and is currently writing a biographical novel based on the life of Jackie Kennedy. She loves Paris, macaroons Ladorée, the novels of Philip Roth, Repetto ballerinas, and her morning coffee and croissant. Share her moment with the patron of Relais & Châteaux Régis Bulot on pages 38-39.

Ariel Childs began working in the magazine world after studying photography in her native New York. Starting off at Condé Nast Publications she moved to London where she was Photography Editor and then Creative Director for Wallpaper* and Spruce magazines. She currently lives in London with her husband and 18-month old daughter, and works as a freelance art director. Her favourite Nespresso capsule is ristretto. Her art direction elan can be seen in the lifestyle feature on Barcelona's Hotel Arts on pages 52-57.

Rodrigo de Moraes lives and works in Campinas, São Paulo, Brazil. Born in the architectural wonder and nation's capital Brasilia, he worked as a teacher in the United States before returning home to continue a career in journalism and translation. He presents us an insider's look at his native country and home to this year's Limited Edition on pages 30-35.

Claudia Moriondo holds a doctorate in Food Science and is Professor for Nutritional and Food Science at the Institute Alberghiero and the Catholic University in Milan. She is the author and co-author of numerous books and articles on nutrition, tasting, food and beverages including the essential Water Codex, published by Sanpellegrino and Aqua Panna in 2005. In addition, she serves on a commission on comestibles for the European Union in Brussels. Moriondo offers up her expertise on this intriguing element of life and livelihood on pages 26-29.
